

Announcements

- All presentations were sent to me on time! Thank you!!
- Final exam is 11am – 12:30pm, Monday, May. 11
  - Location: SH320
  - Comprehensive exam covering from CH1.1- CH10.3 + appendices 3 – 7
  - Mixture of multiple choice and free response problems
  - Bring your calculator but DO NOT input formula into it!
  - BYOF: You can prepare a one 8.5x11.5 sheet (front and back) of handwritten formulae and values of constants for the exam
    - No additional formulae or values of constants will be provided!
- Planetarium extra credit
  - Tape one side of your ticket stubs on a sheet of paper with your name on it
  - Submit the sheet Monday, May 11
- Please be sure to fill out the teaching evaluation survey.
- No colloquium any more...

Research Presentation Contents

1. Introduction: Original theory/Original observation
2. Experimental proofs or Theoretical prediction
3. Subsequent Experimental proofs
4. Importance of the theory/experiment
5. Impact of the theory/Experiment
6. Conclusions and future

Presentation Judging Guidelines

- Contents of the presentation: 60
  - Inclusion of all important points as mentioned in the contents
  - The quality of the research and making the right points
- Quality of the presentation itself: 15
  - Does the presentation have necessary components, such as title page, outline?
  - Is the presentation coherent and to the point?
  - Are the slides high quality? Pictures in good resolution?
- Presentation manner: 10
  - Are the presenters professional?
  - Do they keep eye contact and the audience's attention?
- Q&A handling: 10
  - Do all the group members participate in Q&A?
  - Do the answers make sense and to the point?
- Staying in the allotted presentation time: 5
  - Did the presentation stay within the allotted time?
  - Did the answer drag along unnecessarily?
- Judging participation and sincerity: 5

Congratulations!!!!

You all are impressive and have done very well!!!

*I certainly had a lot of fun with ya'll
and am truly proud of you!*

Good luck with your exam!!!

Have a safe summer!!

