

Martin Slugs Colts 10-0

AHS April 12, 2010. Martin again proved too much for the Colts JV team pounding out four doubles and two home runs in a 10-0 shellacking of the home team. The ball game was a tense pitcher's duel early, with starting pitcher Tyler Rice retiring Martin in the first after a harmless leadoff double, while center fielder Matt Barber's walk was sandwiched between three strikeouts. In the second, Martin got two unearned runs on an infield error and a two-out two-run dinger by the eighth place hitter. With the score still two zip in the bottom of the third, the Colts had their only threat of the game with a single by catcher Brad Johnson and a walk by Barber, but couldn't get the big two out hit, as the Martin hurler closed the frame with a strike out. In the top of the 5th after whiffing the leadoff hitter Rice gave up a single and walk, before Martin mashed doubles on consecutive pitches and all of a sudden it was 5-0. The Warriors added a single off reliever Jeff Queary to raise the lead to 6-0 and added 4 more runs off three relievers in the sixth. The Martin pitcher closed out the one-hit 10 strike-out complete game gem by retiring a trio of pinch hitters in order in the bottom of the sixth.
